

Career Connections #9

Preparing Your Students: A Competency Approach to the Job Market

Tuesday, Dec 5, 2017

8:00 AM – 11:30 AM

Edmonds Community College - Woodway Hall 202 (2nd Floor)
20000 68th Ave West, Lynnwood, WA 98036

Professional Development Series for Career Advisors and Specialists

Industry is well-known for supporting students and teachers in schools. They contribute in many ways such as time, money, internships for students, scholarships, equipment, expertise, and by encouraging employee volunteerism. The December Career Connections Workshop will focus on the evolving work environment and current hiring practices.

Agenda:

8:00-8:30am	Breakfast and Networking; Exhibits Open
8:30 – 8:45am	Call to order – Welcome on behalf of MTAG, MatEdU & Edmonds CC, Introductions
8:45-9:15 am	John Kim, Executive Director Seattle Jobs Initiative – Tours of Duty
9:30 - 10:15am	Industry Panel – Human Resources Perspective (how students can prepare to be hired, the organization and practices of employment as an industry) Ann Bosse, Human Resources Generalist at Orion Ann Graham, Human Resources Director at Boxmaker Bailee Bailey, Hiring Manager at PreCor
10:15-10:30	Break, Exhibitor visits
10:30 – 11:15	Table activities for the group
11:15	Report Out
11:25 - 11:30am	Grand Prize, Evaluations, Clock Hours, Conclusion

https://careerconnections_dec2017.eventbrite.com

Career Connections #9

Comments Heard: "We appreciate coming every year- very educational & rewarding"

"Very good program and great sharing information"

NO
Registration
Fee, Breakfast
Provided &
Clock Hours
Available

